Mary DiChristofano Named to 2022 MAKERS Class by Morgan Stanley Wealth Management

CHICAGO – Morgan Stanley Wealth Management today recognized Mary DiChristofano, Executive Director, Private Wealth Advisor as one of 20 outstanding professionals as MAKERS – an initiative dedicated to celebrating the stories of women and men who are ground breakers, innovators and champions of women’s achievement.

“The individuals in the 9th class of Morgan Stanley MAKERS are shining examples of how our leaders show up in extraordinary ways – whether that’s supporting and advancing those around them, building our culture of inclusion or striving for progress, both at work and in our communities,” said Andy Saperstein, Co-President and Head of Wealth Management.

Nominations were solicited from across the wealth management organization.

Launched in 2012, MAKERS is a storytelling platform for the trailblazing women of today and tomorrow. In 2014, Morgan Stanley Wealth Management was the first firm to partner with the MAKERS program to name in-house leaders as MAKERS. The initiative encourages corporations to celebrate, acknowledge and connect their leading employees to the larger MAKERS network. For more information, go to www.makers.com.

The 2022 MAKERS will be profiled on the Morgan Stanley Forum for Women, Multicultural and LGBT+ Financial Advisors throughout the year. To visit the website, go to <http://www.morganstanley.com/people/financial-advisors/diversity>

At Morgan Stanley we foster a culture of belonging where clients can grow their wealth as they plan for the future and employees are empowered to thrive in their careers.
